A FearLess Journal is a Magic Picture Book. Rather than diminish in value... like so many things in today's consumer culture, your FearLess Journal's power and significance will grow stronger over time with interaction and reflection. For about 6 years, I passed journals as "Traveling Altars" between magic friends, separated by distance.

Though I haven't tried these myself (yet!), I trust Dr. Nanes' recommendations and plan to try them out soon.

Another option, also recommended by Dr. Nanes, is Inkscape: this could be used to add text (such as axis labels) to the graph generated by JASP and export it in a vector format that your journal will accept.
