Total commitment demands that we follow the leadership of the Holy Spirit. He will keep us till death in these bodies. And therefore, Jesus is prophesying that Peter's freedom will cease. 21:19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

Sadly, today we have subtly and deceptively minimized what it means to follow Jesus. We have replaced challenging words like, "Leave everything and follow Me," with trite phrases like: "Ask Jesus into your heart. Invite Christ into your life. Pray this prayer after me, and you will be saved."

I read a book by Platt recently and decided to read some of his other books. This book wasn't as challenging as "Counter-Culture" but nevertheless was a worthwhile read. Whilst "Counter-Culture" addresses specific issues and how Christians respond to them (abortion, gay marriage etc,) "Follow me" deals with Biblical discipleship.
