Gambit just found its way into being my favourite book thus far this year. This is a fantastic read, filled with compelling characters, layered world building and a fascinating plot which, though partially developed, has left me gasping for more. One of the greatest strengths of Gambit is C.L Denault's impeccable pacing.

Gambit was a fantastic read and I look forward to the second book. The story world was intriguing and offered just enough details to not leave me confused but little enough to not satisfy my curiosity completely. The pace was good as well. At no point did I have the feeling that the story dragged unnecessarily or was cut short.

Hi there! This is Raven and Beez, two Muslim-Indian girls who have passed their teen years together and have been blogging for almost two years. We are book hoarders, and we love reading Sci-fi, Fantasy, Contemporary and pretty much anything with dragons.

Rant review of Gambit: The prodigy chronicles #1 by C.L

Series: The Prodigy Chronicles. Review "Gambit by C.L. Denault. August 18, 2016. Book Review. I finally found a dystopian novel I liked. Which, with my track record in the genre, is basically a miracle. Gambit is X-Men with a lost "princess" all set in the future. Outside the Core, civilization has reverted to a [!]
