Origins and purpose. One of the earliest descriptions of a witch bottle in Suffolk, England, appears in 1681 in Joseph Glanvill's Saducismus Triumphatus, or Evidence concerning Witches and Apparitions: . For an old Man that Travelled up and down the Country, and had some acquaintance at that house, calling in and asking the Man of the house how he did and his Wife; He told him that himself ...

Homophones are words that have the same sound but different meanings (and may or may not have different spellings). This list consists exclusively of homophones that have a different spelling. Many pairs of English words which have either gained or lost their homophony through phonemic splits and mergers. Where the split or merger is not complete throughout the language this can lead to a ...
